Results of a banner making workshop for International Women's Day, Array Studios, March 2018. The aprons are referencing the 1908 suffragette campaign for women's votes in the UK, while some placards and banners are using the Pre-Christian symbol of 'Síle Na Gig.' Established in 1994 as a studio space, Array is a group of professional multidisciplinary artists based in Belfast city centre. Array organise occasional events and workshops focused on civil justice, activism and visual arts.
